ABOUT THE WORLD SERIES OF POKER (WSOP)

The World Series of Poker (WSOP) is the longest-running, largest, richest and most prestigious gaming event in the world, dating back 45 years to 1970, and has paid more than $2 billion in total prize money to date. In 2015, the WSOP in Las Vegas features 68 different poker events over 51 consecutive days.

In 2014 at the 45th Annual WSOP, the event attracted a record 82,360 participants from 110 countries around the globe to the Rio All-Suite Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas – all competing for the game’s most coveted prize...a WSOP bracelet and a share of more than $227 million in total prize money.

Featuring a comprehensive slate of tournaments in every major poker variation, the WSOP is poker’s longest running set of tournaments. The World Series of Poker culminates with the $10,000 No-Limit Hold’em Championship, commonly referred to as the Main Event, this year to be contested from July 5-14, 2015.

The winner of each event gets a World Series of Poker gold bracelet – recognized globally as the game’s highest honor – and a cash prize based on the number of entrants and the amount of the event buy-in. The prize pool for the past eight years ($1.5 billion) is triple the total prize pool of the first 37 years of the WSOP combined ($530 million).

Buy-ins for the different events range from $565 to $111,111 depending on the event and, unlike other sporting events, anyone 21 years of age or older can enter, and anyone can win. Winning a WSOP tournament is a life-changing event, defining poker resumes and often creating instant millionaires out of those with a dream and the determination to outmaneuver and outlast the competition.

Caesars Entertainment acquired the WSOP in 2004, and participation in the event has grown exponentially under its tenure.

The WSOP team has forged groundbreaking alliances in broadcasting, digital media, corporate sponsorship, social media applications and licensing while successfully extending the brand internationally, with the advent of the World Series of Poker Circuit Tour in 2005, WSOP Europe in 2007 and WSOP Asia-Pacific in 2013. ESPN is the exclusive U.S. telecast partner of the WSOP. WSOP programming airs in 84 countries on five continents and is available to 300 million households.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE WORLD SERIES OF POKER

Though the World Series of Poker made its official debut in 1970, the idea of the Horseshoe Casino's annual tournament was actually conceived more than two decades earlier.

In the summer of 1949, as the story goes, inveterate gambler Nicholas "Nick the Greek" Dandolos approached Benny Binion with an unusual request – to challenge the best in a high-stakes poker marathon. Binion agreed to set up a match between Dandolos and the legendary Johnny Moss, with the stipulation the game be viewed in public.

During the course of the marathon, which lasted five months with breaks only for sleep, the two men played every form of poker imaginable. Moss ultimately won "the biggest game in town" and an estimated $2 million. When the Greek lost his last pot, he arose from his chair, bowed slightly, and uttered the now-famous words, "Mr. Moss, I have to let you go." Dandolos then went upstairs to bed.

Though significant in its own way as a chapter in poker history, the five-month marathon took on added importance to Benny Binion. He noted that the public had gathered outside the casino each day to watch the game with the fervor of dedicated sports fans, and he was amazed at the attention the event had attracted. But it wasn't until 1970 that Binion decided to re-create this excitement and stage a battle of poker giants – dubbed the "World Series of Poker" – to determine who would be worthy of the title World Champion. Some of the best players in the country were assembled, and Johnny Moss came out on top. The decision was democratic in that the champion was decided by popular vote.

The following year, the winner was determined by a freeze-out competition, with players being systematically eliminated until one player had all the chips. Moss again became the World Champion. In 1972, when Thomas "Amarillo Slim" Preston won the title and went on the talk show circuit, the WSOP began to gain a wider following.

It was a year later that Binion participated in the Oral History Project at the University of Nevada-Reno and discussed the World Series of Poker (WSOP) with interviewer Mary Ellen Glass. "This poker game here gets us a lot of attention," he told Glass. "We had seven players last year, and this year we had 13. I look to have better than 20 next year. It's even liable to get up to be 50, might get up to be more than that." Binion then paused, and as if gazing into the future, prophesied, "It will eventually."

In the early 1980s, with the introduction of preliminary satellite competitions with lower buy-ins, Binion's prophecy came to fruition and the popularity of the World Series of Poker soared. (A satellite is a tournament whose prize is an entry into another higher buy-in tournament).

But even Benny Binion, who passed away on Christmas Day of 1989, would have had difficulty foreseeing the enormous growth the annual tournament has experienced since.

In 1982, nine years after Mr. Binion participated in UNR's Oral History Project, the tournament drew a total of 1,253 entrants across all its events. Two decades later, there were 7,593 entries and 2014's WSOP attracted a record 82,360 entrants from an astonishing 110 different nations. The prize money has increased exponentially as well. In 1982, a total of $2,607,700 was awarded, while in 2014 a staggering $227,712,923 was won. Whereas only 12 events, mostly Texas Hold'em and Seven-Card Stud, were scheduled as recently as 1988, the 2014 tournament offered 65 competitions that feature a wide variety of games.

The WSOP is now a global phenomenon, with WSOP Europe and WSOP Asia-Pacific also staples on the event calendar.

Today, the legacy Benny Binion left the poker community ranks as the oldest, largest, most prestigious, and most media-hyped gaming competition in the world, and, no doubt, it holds the promise of an even brighter future. But equally important, the World Series of Poker has touched thousands of lives over the years, affording talented players the opportunity to follow their dreams, reach for the stars and perhaps one day achieve greatness in their chosen endeavor.

THE WORLD SERIES OF POKER GOLD BRACELET: POKER'S ULTIMATE ACHIEVEMENT

Prestige: respect or reputation derived from achievements, power, associations, etc. -- Oxford Dictionary

There's nothing quite like it -- anywhere.

Comparisons can be made to a championship title belt in boxing, or the green jacket in golf, or the gold medal in the Olympic Games. But nothing quite compares to the one-inch by eight-inch cylinder of dazzling gold that symbolizes poker's ultimate achievement.

Indeed, the World Series of Poker Gold Bracelet stands apart from all other amulets of excellence for what it represents -- not just for a few world-class sports stars fortunate enough to possess great athleticism as is the case with title belts and trophies -- but rather to millions of ordinary, everyday people from all walks of life, both male and female, from more than a hundred nations around the world. The gold bracelet is a prize that can feasibly be won and ultimately worn by anyone driven by a dream.

Although the Gold Bracelet is accessible to millions of would-be poker champions, this is not to say winning one is easy. To the contrary, the path to a bona fide WSOP title often begins in a basement, across a kitchen table, or inside a college dorm room. This is usually where poker players and the most outlandish of aspirations are born.

For a fortunate few, the seeds of those aspirations flower into a WSOP Gold Bracelet, the game's greatest honor.

The WSOP began in 1970, making it the oldest and most prestigious poker competition on the planet. The annual poker festival was initially held at Binion's Horseshoe in Downtown Las Vegas, which played host to the eclectic gathering of poker aficionados and gamblers during the first 35 years. During the tournament's earliest years, winners received a trophy or a silver plate, but those accolades didn't seem appropriate for poker's motley moors and prideful traditions. Winning a WSOP championship had to be celebrated with something flashier. The keepsake had to be an ostentatious expression of personal triumph that represented overcoming the odds and defeating the world's very best.

And so, the WSOP Gold Bracelet was born. In 1976, WSOP founder and patriarch Benny Binion decided to award Gold Bracelets for the first time. It proved to be a brilliant move. After all, other than the prominent poker face, the most visible part of a player's body while sitting at the table and competing is the hands. Wrists with Gold Bracelets were winners. Wrists without were losers, or at least victory hadn't come yet. The Gold Bracelet was -- and very much remains -- not just a fashion statement, but poker's ultimate status symbol.

Since Binion's tasteful innovation 38 years ago, every official WSOP event is adorned with a Gold Bracelet at its apex. Every champion receives one, in addition to what often amounts to life-changing prize money. In keeping with WSOP tradition, all winners of events held before 1976 were retroactively noted as "Gold Bracelet Winners." The records and accomplishments are tabulated just as if they received an actual bracelet. (Several of the 1970-1976 winners later had special gold bracelets custom made in order to join the most chic club in poker).

The universal sentiment for the Gold Bracelet was perhaps best expressed by Hollywood actress Jennifer Tilly, who was once nominated for an Academy Award. Tilly won the 2005 Ladies WSOP Championship, and was presented with her own token of victory. Afterward, she said winning her WSOP Gold Bracelet was, "better than an Oscar."

The WSOP has grown nearly every year since its inception. Now, there are more tournament events than ever, necessitated as a response to the crush of people from all over the world who now descend upon Las Vegas in an annual pilgrimage.

In 2007, the WSOP expanded to Europe, awarding the first-ever bracelets outside of Las Vegas. WSOP Europe bracelets are recognized equally alongside bracelets awarded at the (Las Vegas) WSOP and are treated and tracked in the same manner. In 2013, the WSOP Asia-Pacific awarded five gold bracelets in Melbourne, Australia for the very first time and added 10 during the 2014 iteration.

To date, there have been 1,181 Gold Bracelets awarded in World Series of Poker history. This figure includes every official WSOP event played, including tournaments during the early years when there were no actual gold bracelets awarded. It also includes the 37 gold bracelets awarded at WSOP Europe, plus the 15 from WSOP APAC, plus the annual National Championship.

In 2015, a total of 79 WSOP gold bracelets will be at stake, three more than 2014. One prize will be awarded to the 2014-15 season WSOP National Champion, the culmination of 20 events throughout the United States over 10 months and two calendar years. Ten will be awarded at WSOP Europe in October. Another 68 will be bestowed upon the individual winners of each of the distinct poker tournaments being held in Las Vegas in the summer.

The WSOP is owned by Caesars Interactive Entertainment, Inc. (CIE), which considers the event one of the company's most powerful and attractive assets. All those who operate the WSOP acknowledge a strong personal and corporate responsibility for protecting what for many poker players is a sacred institution. The WSOP considers the growth of the game to be the most significant factor in assessing the question about adding new events and Gold Bracelets.

Poker's popularity has exploded over the past decade, thanks in large part to the advent of the hole card camera and the Internet – two factors which have helped to revolutionize the game and educate a whole new generation of poker players around the globe, adding millions of new players to the game, and who will eventually become tomorrow's new stars. As such, the WSOP attempts to effectively balance the supply and demand by ensuring the average number of entrants per event continues to increase in order to introduce new bracelets. As an example, in 2014, WSOP events averaged 1,267 entrants. In 2002, the WSOP averaged 217 entrants per bracelet awarded.

In 1976 when Doyle Brunson won the first of his back-to-back WSOP Main Event WSOP titles (world championships), he bested a field of 22 to capture the crown. At the most recent WSOP, Martin Jacobson outlasted a field of 6,683 players.

The top WSOP Gold Bracelet winners of all-time are Phil Hellmuth (13 wins), and Doyle Brunson, Johnny Chan and Phil Ivey with 10 each. Three of these players are members of the Poker Hall of Fame and Ivey is too young to yet be eligible. Each is still actively playing. After briefly tying the record for most bracelets alongside Brunson and Chan, Hellmuth won a record-setting 11th bracelet in 2007 and then not one, but two more bracelets in 2012 to extend his overall lead to 13.

“Puggy” Pearson became the first WSOP player to win three Gold Bracelets at one WSOP in 1973. That incredible feat has only been equaled five times in the 45-year history of the event -- most recently by George Danzer in 2014. Ted Forrest, Phil Ivey, Phil Hellmuth and Jeffrey Lisandro are the other champions to have accomplished poker's greatest trifecta.

Just as the prestige of the WSOP has grown with bigger attendance numbers and more prize money, so too has the value of winning a WSOP Gold Bracelet. Initially, WSOP gold bracelets cost a few hundred dollars each. Now, they cost several thousand dollars. The WSOP Main Event gold bracelet, costs approximately $500,000 – the most expensive trophy in sports!

With the passage of time and the inevitable variations of fashion and style, WSOP Gold Bracelet designs have grown increasing more elaborate over the years. Early bracelets were simple. During some years, WSOP Gold Bracelets were simply a heavy gold chain. Now, the bracelets include diamonds and other gemstones, along with 18 karat gold, white gold or yellow gold -- depending on the year and particular bracelet. Jostens is the official bracelet supplier of the WSOP.

Most players keep their WSOP gold bracelets. Others gift them to close family members, particularly those have been fortunate enough to win multiples. They are considered one-of-a-kind collectibles as they indelibly serve to signify a crowning achievement in the worldwide skill game known as poker.

There are exceptions to the notion that the Gold Bracelet is a priceless keepsake. The most famous example was Peter Eastgate's decision to sell off his treasured memento, via a public auction. The 2008 WSOP Main Event Champion became the youngest winner in history with his victory at age 22. In 2010, Eastgate used the eBay online auction site and took bids for his bracelet with intent to donate the money to a charity (UNICEF). The winning bidder paid $147,500 for Eastgate's one-of-a-kind trophy.

Actual bracelet or not, winning a WSOP title is forever regarded as a career accomplishment. Possessing the hardware is not required for immortality in poker's history books. A player goes from John Doe to “WSOP Gold Bracelet winner John Doe” the instant the final chip is stacked on poker's grandest stage. Status is measured by one thing -- the WSOP Gold Bracelet, which brings to mind a truism offered by professional poker player Phil Gordon when he professed, “In poker there are two categories of players: those with Gold Bracelets and those without.”

One must not confuse the WSOP Gold Bracelet with imitators. Imitation is indeed the sincerest form of flattery, and some other poker tournaments have begun to award their own “bracelets” to winners. However, such efforts have failed to convince players or the public that they are indeed noteworthy. In short, nothing compares to a bona fide WSOP Gold Bracelet.

At least one comparison is true. Although the World Series of Poker is without equal, it is indeed every poker player's Super Bowl, Olympic Games, and World Cup, with each precious victory entwined in an inimitable emblem called the Gold Bracelet.

Bracelet Ceremony – 46th Annual World Series of Poker

Daily at 2:20 PM from May 28 through July 6

Continuing the tradition started in 2009, all World Series of Poker bracelet winners will be treated to a special ceremony the day after their victory.

Each gold bracelet winner will be asked to return to the Brasilia Room at the Rio at 2:20 PM the day following his or her win to receive their WSOP gold bracelet in an official ceremony presided over by WSOP tournament director Jack Effel or WSOP Historian Nolan Dalla.

Renowned jewelerly company Jostens is the official bracelet designer and manufacturer for 2015.

The timing of the ceremony coincides with the return of players from the first break of the noon tournament. With a Brasilia Room full of players, the previous day's event winner(s) will be welcomed to the stage, where each will be awarded a gold bracelet and pose for photos as the national anthem of the winner's choosing is played.

In addition, each new bracelet holder will receive a new Total Rewards card. As is custom for WSOP winners, Caesars Entertainment awards "Diamond" status – an exclusive club reserved for Caesars' best customers – to all bracelet holders for one year.

Play in the Brasilia Room will be halted during the ceremony and commence following the brief ceremony.

It should be noted that the time of this ceremony will differ some days based on scheduled start days at 11 am or 10 am on this year's schedule. Additionally, some days will have no ceremonies, when no final tables are contested on the previous day's schedule.

Media are welcome to gather in front of the stage to take pictures and shoot video during the presentation. At the conclusion of the bracelet ceremony, media will be able to arrange one-on-one interviews with the newly-crowned champion(s) on the stage, including video interviews from the stage.

Reminder: Use of video in the Brasilia Room is still prohibited for tournament play.

2015 WSOP

NEW & NOTEWORTHY

NEW AND NOTEWORTHY FOR 2015

In the 11 years since the WSOP has been under the Rio umbrella, one thing that has been consistent is the continued tweaking and trying new things each year. 2015 will be no different.

With 68 events on the schedule, there are a healthy 11 new tournaments on the docket. (Those are detailed in this guide, event by event). While some of those events (like Event #5 the Colossus) are garnering a lot of the attention, there are other changes in store that players will surely be pleased about.

Huge Increase in Starting Chips! Who doesn't love more chips to start play? New for 2015, the WSOP has significantly adjusted upward the starting stack for all WSOP events that have a buy-in under $10,000. The new starting stacks for these events will be as follows:

- $565 buy-in: 5,000 starting chips (Colossus, new event; 10 times the buy-in, same as last year's Monster Stack)
- $777 buy-in: 5,000 starting chips (new buy-in level this year, treated like a $1k event) – 100 big blinds
- $1,000 buy-in: 5,000 starting chips (increase of 66% over 2014) – 100 big blinds
- $1,500 buy-in: 7,500 starting chips (increase of 66% over 2014) – 150 big blinds
- $2,500 buy-in: 12,500 starting chips (increase of 66% over 2014) – 167 big blinds
- $3,000 buy-in: 15,000 starting chips (increase of 66% over 2014) – 200 big blinds
- $5,000 buy-in: 25,000 starting chips (increase of 66% over 2014) – 250 big blinds

In addition to the starting chips, the structures have been improved as well to better address player concerns. Now low buy-in events will feature the 250/500 blind level, and later on the 2500/5000 level. These adjustments along with the increase in starting chips are expected to add a couple levels of play to each event before reaching a winner. Additionally registration has been extended in many events to accommodate the bigger starting stacks with eight levels of registration now an option for events with buy-ins $2500 or more in most cases (consult structure sheets).

The WSOP in 2015 is also tweaking some key returning events to allow for better player experience. This includes a concerted effort to push up the weekends to include Fridays, with several prominent events now beginning on a Friday along with a new earlier start time. These events include the Millionaire Maker (June 5/6) and the Monster Stack (June 12/13).

In terms of the physical layout, 2015 will look very similar to recent years. The Pavilion, Brasilia and Amazon ballrooms will be transformed into poker's version of Woodstock. There are expected to be around 450 poker tables spread throughout the Rio Convention Center's three largest areas, allowing for non-stop tournament, satellite, Daily Deepstack and cash game action.

Lastly, WSOP.com, the online home of the WSOP has begun offering players the ability to play online via their smart phone or tablet, in addition to their computer. So any players at the Rio will be able to for the first time, play live poker in our tournament rooms while grinding some action online on WSOP.com as well. 2015 WSOP MAIN EVENT - $10,000 Buy-In; Guaranteeing 1,000 Paid Places

Sunday, July 5 at 12 noon – Event #68A – First Starting Flight
Monday, July 6 at 12 noon – Event #68B – Middle Starting Flight
Tuesday, July 7 at 12 noon – Event #68C – Final Starting Flight

Poker's World Championship -- the WSOP Main Event -- will undergo some more tweaks for its 46th iteration. The guts of course remain the same, $10,000 buy-in, broad ESPN television coverage, two-hour levels, 30,000 in starting chips, eight days of play to get from the roughly 7,000 players who start to the final nine.

But this year, more players than ever will go home winners. Structure sheet here:

<http://www.wsop.com/2015/structuresheets/14268-structure.pdf>

The World Series of Poker has made a change to its payout structure for the Main Event, replacing the $10 million first place guarantee in favor of guaranteeing 1,000* places receiving winnings.

With a strategy to more broadly distribute the prize pool, the WSOP Main Event will still award a massive prize to its Champion. If participation numbers are the same as 2014 (6,683) the 2015 winner would receive $8,000,000, a prize consistent to winners of the past decade before last year's $10 million first place prize to commemorate the 10th anniversary of the event at the Rio. In addition, all final table participants would receive at least $1 million.

Using the 2014 Main Event entry number -- 6,683 entries -- the 2015 Main Event payout structure would look like this:

(It is important to note the final payout structure will be determined based on number of 2015 entries*)

- 1st place: $8,000,000
- 2nd place: $4,663,527
- 3rd place: $3,500,000
- 4th place: $2,750,000
- 5th place: $2,000,000
- 6th place: $1,500,000
- 7th place: $1,250,000
- 8th place: $1,100,000
- 9th place: $1,000,000
- 10-12th place: $550,000
- 50th place: $142,500
- 100th place: $50,000
- 500th place: $20,850
- 693rd place: $16,750 (last year's last paid place)
- 694-1,000 place: $15,000

The WSOP recognizes the Main Event is a unique tournament onto itself, given the highly international field, percentage of repeat players and lofty $10,000 buy-in. The WSOP believes paying a higher percentage of players in this particular event, (based on last year's entry figure would be akin to 15 percent of the field -- nearly 50% more players than previously) will encourage both new and repeat participation, and thus an increased prize pool.

The world's longest-running poker tournament -- the $10,000 buy-in No-Limit Hold'em WSOP Main Event championship -- runs over ten consecutive days from July 5 - July 14, 2015 and will feature three starting flights -- Sunday, July 5; Monday, July 6; and Tuesday, July 7. The November Nine returns and will be contested November 8-10, 2015 with three live days of television on ESPN covering every hand of the final table.

WSOP MAIN EVENT FINAL TABLE NOW A THREE-DAY EXTRAVAGANZA

NOVEMBER 8-9-10, 2015

Televised Live Sunday, Nov. 8 on ESPN; Monday, Nov. 9 on ESPN2 & Tuesday, Nov. 10 on ESPN

In 2008, the World Series of Poker announced a groundbreaking change to the conclusion of the world's most prestigious poker event – the $10,000 buy-in No Limit Hold'em World Championship, commonly referred to as the Main Event. Instead of playing out the event over consecutive days as was done previously, the event is paused once 9 players remain and delayed to resume in concert with the live airing of the television coverage, typically 3-4 months later.

In 2015, for the eighth consecutive year, the plan continues with the revised format of poker's most seminal competition, aligning the tournament and the television experience. However, this year the final table moves from a two-day affair, to now a live three-day affair, with every hand shown live on ESPN in November.

The Main Event in 2015 will be contested from July 5-14, and then play will stop until Sunday, November 8, resuming on that date with the final nine players live on ESPN. Play will pause once we reach four players, and resume on Monday, November 9 live on ESPN2 until we have the final two combatants. The winner will be crowned on Tuesday, November 10 in front of a live television audience on ESPN.

Each of the nine players who make it to the WSOP Main Event Final Table will receive ninth-place prize money on July 15, when the finalists are determined. The WSOP will then provide each of those players with an expenses-paid trip for two for their return to Las Vegas in November to play the final portion of the tournament.

From July 15 to November 8, a span of 116 days, players will have an opportunity to arrange for all their friends and family to come witness in-person, the dramatic conclusion of the tournament. In addition, they will be able to line up sponsorships and coaches, review the play of all their competitors, participate in other tournaments and take advantage of the new publicity and promotional opportunities available to them.

The change in how the Main Event final table is staged brings the excitement and drama of high-stakes WSOP tournament play closer to millions of fans around the globe and creates an incredible atmosphere inside the Penn & Teller Theater that is more akin to a major stadium spectator sport than traditional poker events.

The winner of the Main Event is expected to be crowned early on the morning on November 11.

$565 COLOSSUS NO-LIMIT HOLD'EM - $5 MILLION PRIZEPOOL

Friday, May 29 – Event #5A @10am; 5B @6pm;
Saturday, May 30 – Event #5C @10am; 5D @6pm – Re-Entry

New Event for WSOP in 2015

The tournament generating the most buzz entering the 2015 WSOP, is clearly the opening weekend event – the $565 Colossus No-Limit Hold'em with a $5,000,000 prize pool guarantee.

This means organizers need a field of 10,000 players in order to reach the guarantee. The record for largest live poker tournament field is 8,773 achieved for the 2006 WSOP Main Event.

The expectation is the event will exceed the 10,000 player mark and go down as the biggest live tournament in history.

The $565 price point is the lowest buy-in offered for an open event at the WSOP in 35 years.

Event #5 on the schedule, ($565 Colossus No-Limit Hold'em) will feature two starting days, four starting flights (two a day on Fri. May 29 & Sat. May 30 at 10 am and 6 pm). Players eliminated in a flight may enter any of the others.

Players may forfeit their current chip stack at the end of the flight prior to bagging if they choose for the opportunity to re-enter another flight. But once that decision has been made, there is no rescinding.

Players may not enter another flight once they have survived a flight with chips without forfeiting.

We are planning to accommodate late waves if need be. We do not have unlimited capacity and expect some if not all flights to fill to our limits.

Fields will combine for Day 2 on Sunday, May 31.

Players will begin play with 5,000 in tournament chips and play 10 40-minute levels on Day 1, before the event moves to 60 minute levels for Day 2 and beyond.

The event is expected to conclude on Tuesday, June 2 and is expected to be one of the largest prize pools of the summer.

$1,000 HYPER NO-LIMIT HOLD'EM

Sunday, May 31 – Event #6 @11am

New Event for WSOP in 2015

Another new event in 2015 is the $1,000 buy-in Hyper No-Limit Hold'em scheduled for Sunday, May 31 at 11:00 am. It is officially event #6 on the schedule.

This is one of the few opportunities for players to go from entrant to bracelet winner in just two days.

With a $1,000 buy-in, players now will start with five times a starting stack – 5,000 in chips – up 66% from previous years.

In this event, players start 100 big blinds deep, with levels lasting 20 minutes – the fastest the WSOP has offered.

The event is expected to reach its final table by the end of Day 1 play.

Remaining players return for Day 2 and the final table on Monday, June 1 at 1:00pm.

The event is scheduled to take advantage of all the players who came in town to play the Colossus No-Limit Hold'em event but didn't make it to Day 2. These players now have an event in which they can enter and quickly reach the prize money.

$1,500 EXTENDED PLAY NO-LIMIT HOLD'EM

Saturday, June 20 – Event #42 @12 noon

New Event for WSOP in 2015

The 2015 WSOP schedule is littered with new events, eleven to be exact, and the one that might be falling under the radar is Event #42, the Extended Play No-Limit Hold'em.

This event is scheduled for 12 noon on Saturday, June 20. Any time the WSOP schedules a Saturday noon event, the expectation is it will be big.

It comes with a $1,500 buy-in, and the key differentiator is the 90-minute levels that will be utilized throughout this event.

With 7,500 in starting chips and blinds beginning at 25/50, players will have plenty of time to be patient in this event.

While the Monster Stack was the breakout event of 2014, some are predicting the Extended Play No-Limit Hold'em event will be this year's gem.

Picture your typical large field $1,500 No-Limit Hold'em weekend event at the WSOP with levels each lasting 50% longer than the typically-structured event which has one hour levels.

Players will have plenty of time to maneuver, just like they did when starting with 15,000 in chips in the Monster Stack. But instead of the 50% more chips, they will have that in time.

The Extended Play should produce a very similar tournament to the Monster Stack with very good value and a chance for players to put their skills on display.

The event is expected to take four or five days to reach its winner. (It will depend on number of entrants).

The structure sheet for the event can be viewed here: <http://www.wsop.com/2015/structuresheets/14242-structure.pdf>

WSOP SUPER SENIORS EVENT (Age 65+) - $1,000 Buy-In (3-Day Event)

Sunday, June 21st at 10 AM – Event #43 (New Event in 2015)

New Event for WSOP in 2015

A new event for 2015 is the Super Seniors Event – for those age 65 or older – added just two days after the regular Seniors Event to capture those players who didn't make it to Day 3 of the Seniors Event, or who would like to play another event with like-aged individuals.

At the 46th annual WSOP, the Super Seniors-only event is slated for Sunday, June 21st at 10 a.m. officially as Event #43.

The event will feature a $1,000 buy-in, be played as No Limit Hold'em and follow the exact same structure as the popular Seniors Event.

The decision to add the Super Seniors Event was made after analyzing the entrant's lists from the past several WSOP Senior events. We found that more than two-thirds of participants were already in the 65+ age bracket, and with capacity nearing for the Seniors event, we felt adding this new event in 2015 would be additive to the WSOP and the player experience.

$5,000 TURBO NO-LIMIT HOLD'EM

Saturday, June 27 – Event #56 @4pm

New Event for WSOP in 2015

There's something about playing in a tournament and knowing that if you've been able to successfully chip up early, reaching the money becomes that much more likely.

In a turbo format, where levels are structured faster, players know that getting some chips early can make them dangerous.

A new entry to the 2015 WSOP schedule is the Turbo No-Limit Hold'em at the $5,000 buy-in price point. This event is not for the faint of heart.

Levels will be 30 minutes in duration. Although players start with a robust 25,000 in tournament chips, by the time Day 1 play comes to end, players will be coming back to blinds of 5,000/10,000 with 1,000 antes.

Day 2 play will feature 40 minute levels. This event is structured as a two-day event, thus anyone reaching Day 2 is expected to be at the final table.

Late registration for this event is through eight levels of play, which is expected to hit at 8:40 pm.

$1,500 DRAFTKINGS 50/50 NO-LIMIT HOLD'EM

Saturday, June 27 – Event #55 @12 noon

New Event for WSOP in 2015

Continuing the unique No-Limit Hold'em events being offered at the 2015 WSOP is another new event, this time structured where 50 percent of the participants will be paid.

Known as the DraftKings 50/50 No-Limit Hold'em, this $1,500 buy-in No-Limit Hold'em event simply offers a modified payout structure, where instead of the typical ten percent of players reaching the money, half the field will.

Designed after the popular Daily Fantasy Sports website DraftKings, an official sponsor of the WSOP, the event mimics the format utilized for one-day fantasy sports, where some tournaments offer the opportunity for half the players to win.

The DraftKings 50/50 No-Limit Hold'em will begin on Saturday, June 27 at 12 noon, and is officially Event #55 on the schedule.

It is a 3-day structured event, but is expected to reach the money just halfway into the first day of play.

Players begin with 7,500 in tournament chips and each level will last 60 minutes.

With 50 percent of the field being paid, this event will not be top heavy in terms of payouts. The entire payout structure for this event will be unique unto itself, as it simply must spread out the prize pool to five times more players than a typical WSOP event does.

As such, players aren't expected to receive the typical windfall associated with WSOP gold bracelet events. But the fact that players will reach the money midway through Day 1 means there has never been a WSOP event where you can turn your buy-in into a guaranteed payout as easily as this event.

$25,000 HIGH ROLLER 8-HANDED POT-LIMIT OMAHA

Monday, June 29 – Event #60 @4pm

New Event for WSOP in 2015

There is no denying the growing popularity of Pot-Limit Omaha, the game where players receive four down cards, and must use the five community cards to produce the best five-card hand, utilizing exactly two of their down cards and exactly three of the community cards.

The WSOP has seen this variant of poker continue to grow and grow.

As such, new to the 2015 WSOP schedule is an offering at the highest price point this game has ever seen in a tournament setting – a whopping $25,000.

The $25,000 8-Handed Pot-Limit Omaha event gets underway on Monday, June 29 at 4:00 pm and is officially Event #60 on the schedule.

By playing 8-handed, this event is expected to see even more action than typically found in PLO.

Players will begin play with 75,000 in tournament chips and each level will be one hour in length.

This event is expected to take four days to reach a winner.

Registration for this event remains open until the start of Day 2.

$1,500 BOUNTY NO-LIMIT HOLD'EM

Wednesday, July 1 – Event #62 @12 noon

New Event for WSOP in 2015

Another new event in 2015 is the $1,500 buy-in Bounty No-Limit Hold'em scheduled for Wednesday, July 1 at 12:00 noon. It is officially event #62 on the schedule.

The WSOP had a bounty event on its schedule at its most recent WSOP Asia-Pacific event in 2014, and it was well-received by the players.

Thus, its addition for the first time to the 2015 WSOP schedule.

What makes this event unique is the $500 bounty placed on each player in the tournament.

Players will each start with a specially-designated tournament chip. When a player is eliminated, that player must surrender their specially-designated tournament chip to the player who eliminated them.

For each specially-designated tournament chip a player accrues, he/she will get $500 from the prize pool.

The remaining $850 from each entry stays in the prize pool and is paid out in typical WSOP tournament prize pool fashion.

Players begin the bounty tournament with 7,500 in tournament chips, and the event is expected to reach a conclusion in three days.

The strategy of a bounty tournament is altered from the norm, as players must calculate the $500 bounty into their decision-making.

The structure sheet for the event can be viewed here:

New Event for WSOP in 2015

Players Must Register for a WSOP.com Nevada Online Account; Play is Online

There is no question that online poker is a popular version of the game and for the first time in its 46-year history, the WSOP will offer an online poker tournament for a WSOP gold bracelet in 2015.

It is officially Event #64 on the 2015 WSOP schedule. It is a $1,000 buy-in No-Limit Hold'em tournament taking place on Thursday, July 2 at 12 noon. Players will begin with 10,000 in tournament chips and play 20 minute levels online.

The uniqueness of this new event is the fact it is not going to be contested at the Rio for Day 1. Instead it will be played online via WSOP.com real money poker software in Nevada.

Anyone inside the borders of the state of Nevada is eligible to play. They simply must download the official WSOP.com software (available via mobile, tablet or computer) and register for a WSOP.com Nevada account if they don't have one (<http://www.wsop.com/start/registration.asp>).

Players must ensure their account is funded with at least $1,000 in order to buy into this specific event.

In a unique twist, the event will pause after it plays down to six players. These six players will then play the final table live at the Rio in the famed Amazon Room on Saturday, July 4 at 12 noon. The finale will be played with real chips and cards and all the action will be covered on WSOP.com. Levels will increase to 40 minutes in length for the final six players.

With WSOP.com software now mobile and tablet friendly, players can still compete in other live-based events at the Rio, while simultaneously competing in this event online. This is true all summer long, not just for this event.

While all WSOP gold bracelet events in history have required for you to be at the venue to participate, this event actually widens the access points, because you just simply have to be anywhere in Nevada. It is important to note that anyone from around the globe, as long as they are in Nevada on July 2nd, can participate in the WSOP.com Online event. The law allows both residents and visitors to play while inside the state's borders.

WSOP.com has made arrangements with 888Poker, PlayNow in Canada and Winamax in France to satellite players into this event. We expect players from all around the globe to win their way in.

$777 LUCKY 7's NO-LIMIT HOLD'EM

Friday, July 3 – Event #66 Two Starting Flights: 10am & 6pm

New Event for WSOP in 2015

Not only a new event, but a new price point at the WSOP in 2015 is Event #66, the $777 buy-in Lucky 7's No-Limit Hold'em.

This new event features two starting flights, one at 10am, the other at 6 pm, both on Friday, July 3.

Players will be allowed one re-entry for the tournament, and can choose to re-enter their existing flight or the later flight if that option is still available.

The Lucky 7's is the last No-Limit Hold'em event before the Main Event, and any WSOP event scheduled in this slot, typically performs well as plenty of players are in town gearing up for the Main Event.

Players will begin this event with 5,000 in tournament chips and play on Day 1 will feature 40-minute levels. Once Day 2 is reached, levels will be extended to 60 minutes.

The event is expected to last three days, but with robust attendance, this event may require a fourth day to reach a winner.

For those that aren't aware, the Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino's main phone number is 777-7777. So you combine that with people feeling seven is a lucky number, and you get the name of the event, Lucky 7's.

$10,000 'DEALER'S CHOICE' 6-HANDED EVENT

Friday, July 3, 2015 – 4:00 p.m. – Event #67

New Event for WSOP in 2015

After a successful debut of a $1,500 Dealer's Choice event in 2014, the WSOP has added a new $10,000 buy-in Dealers Choice offering in 2015 – this one to feature a record 19 variants of poker.

Most people learned the game of poker sitting around a kitchen table, playing what ultimately turned into Dealer's Choice, where the person shuffling and dealing the cards, chose the game to be played.

Drafted off that concept, the WSOP is offering a selection of 19 different variants of poker all inside one event. WSOP poker dealers will deal players – with the game selection determined by the player who has the special Dealer's Choice Button. Each game will be played for one orbit, when the next player in line chooses which game to deal when the orbit completes. The entire event will play out this way, up and including through a winner being crowned.

WSOP Event #67 is on Friday, July 3 at 4:00 p.m., offering a three-day event with a $10,000 buy-in.

A similar $1,500 event is also schedule on Thursday, June 25 at 4:00 p.m., as Event #52.

It is expected to require a lot of strategy to navigate this event with game selection by the “dealer” each orbit a key component.

Among the games to choose from are:

No-Limit Hold'em	Limit Hold'em	Pot-Limit Hold'em
Seven Card Stud	Seven Card Razz	Seven Card Stud Hi-Lo Split 8 or Better
Badacy	Pot-Limit Omaha	Pot-Limit Omaha Hi-Lo Split 8 or Better
Pot-Limit 5 Card Draw Hi	2-7 Draw Lowball (No-Limit)	Omaha Hi-Lo Split 8 or Better
2-7 Triple Draw Lowball (Limit)	Limit Omaha High	Ace-to-Five Triple Draw Lowball (Limit)
Badugi (Limit)	Baducy (Limit)	Seven Card Stud Hi-Low Regular
Big O

The event is expected to take three days to complete. Players begin with 30,000 in starting chips and levels will last 60 minutes.

WORLD SERIES OF POKER PLAYER OF THE YEAR POWERED BY GLOBAL POKER INDEX

The World Series of Poker (WSOP) instituted a Player of the Year system in 2004, after Caesars acquired the brand.

The system awards points based on finish for all open bracelet events. Anyone who cashes in an open WSOP gold bracelet event is awarded points. The player with the most overall points is the winner of the WSOP Player of the Year.

In 2015, the WSOP has partnered with the globally recognized Global Poker Index to power and provide the formula used to determine the WSOP POY. A total of 74 gold bracelet events will qualify for the 2015 crown, 64 open events at the summer WSOP, plus the ten bracelets awarded at WSOP Europe in October.

Adding the WSOP Player of the Year to your resume is one of the highest honors a poker player can achieve.

Typically, the individual who wins this award has multiple in-the-money finishes and a WSOP gold bracelet among those cashes. In fact, no player has won the award without at least capturing a gold bracelet.

In 2014, with the ten WSOP gold bracelets awarded at WSOP Asia-Pacific in Melbourne, Australia, a total of 72 open bracelet events determined the 2014 WSOP Player of the Year. 62 open events at WSOP, with WSOP Asia-Pacific's 10 events that were played in October, 2014.

Germany's George Danzer, by virtue of his ten cashes, five final tables and three victories claimed the 2014 crown.

Daniel Negreanu became the first player in WSOP history to capture the WSOP Player of the Year title twice and did it by virtue of strong showings at all three WSOP events – WSOP Europe, WSOP in Las Vegas and WSOP Asia-Pacific.

Below is a list of WSOP Player of the Year winners, along with their accomplishments in their winning year.

But the data shows the event average is near record highs. In fact, take out the Big One event and 2014 was the second-best average ever. Meaning it is harder than ever to win one.

BRACELETS AWARDED BY YEAR

We take the scarcity of the bracelet very seriously. Some numbers to help put things in perspective: In 2014, with 65 events at the WSOP, the average number of players per event was 1,267, the fourth highest average ever. Thus, to win a WSOP gold bracelet, one would have to defeat on average, 1,266 players. Going back in time, you will see the average entrants per event were 210 for 36 events at the 2003 WSOP. In 1982, it was 89 entrants average for 17 events. The demand has never been greater, thus the supply increases to meet it. So, despite the number of bracelets up for grabs, the fact is, it has never been harder to win one.

Truly the WORLD Series of Poker

This graph shows the ten-year trend of the locations of participants of the World Series of Poker.

More nations participated in the WSOP in 2014 than the 2014 Winter Olympics (110 vs. 88), truly making the WSOP the Olympics of Poker.

NATIONS

Note: A nation is defined as any country, territory or location. Included in these calculations are Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands, because the purpose is to show all the different locations people are traveling from to attend the WSOP.

ATHLETES WHO HAVE PLAYED IN THE WORLD SERIES OF POKER

NASCAR driver Jason White became just the third athlete to cash in the 45-year history of the WSOP Main Event when he finished in 348th place for $33,734. White's finish gives him the record for highest finish and deepest run of any athlete in Main Event history.

He bested NHL goaltender Roberto Luongo's 634th place finish in 2012 and Olympic Skier Petter Northug who finished 653rd place in 2010. These are the only three athletes to cash in poker's biggest event.

White wasn't the only athlete to play the WSOP Main Event in 2014 though. NBA players Paul Pierce and Earl Barron were in the field, as well as Super Bowl champion Richard Seymour, soccer star Gerard Pique and UFC standout Martin Kampmann.

The WSOP, with its broad appeal, has long seen athletes participate. Here are some of those that have played over the years.

TOP 25 - ALL-TIME LARGEST LIVE FIELD SIZES – WSOP HISTORY

Unlike other sports, where spectators pay the entry fees and players don't, poker is quite the opposite. Players pay to enter (the buy-in), while spectators get free access to watch the action. The more players, the larger the prize pool.

In 2014, the WSOP hosted five of our Top 25 tournaments of all-time, including our 2nd, 3rd and 7th largest events ever. In fact, the Millionaire Maker and the Monster Stack became the first events ever to outdraw the Main Event in the modern era. Here's a look at the largest live poker tournaments in WSOP history.

BUY-LOW, SELL HIGH: BIGGEST PAYDAYS FOR SMALL INVESTMENT

At the 2015, the expectation is that the new $565 Colossus event will set the record for the largest poker tournament in terms of entries. But it will be interesting to also see whether the first place prize for this event exceeds some of the largest payouts ever for moderate to low buy-in events. It is always a great feeling to invest a little and get a giant return on your investment. There are not many places where you can pay $565, $1,000 or $1,500, work four days, and turn that investment into 771 times your money. But at the WSOP, it is possible.

Here is a look at the Top 5 payouts for World Series of Poker events that cost just $1,000 or $1,500 to enter.

ALL-TIME FINAL TABLES – TOP 25 – WORLD SERIES OF POKER

Winning poker tournaments gets you the glory – and the bracelet – but making a final table at the World Series of Poker is still considered an incredible achievement. In poker parlance, it's the equivalent of getting into the postseason or some might even say, making it to the title game.

The great Phil Hellmuth added three final tables to his record in 2014 and has now final tabled an incredible 47.2% of the time he cashes at the WSOP. (51 of 108)

Here's who sits atop the poker mountain in terms of final table appearances in the 45-year history of the WSOP.

MAIN EVENT CASHES – TOP 25 – WORLD SERIES OF POKER

The World Series of Poker Main Event is clearly the granddaddy of all poker tournaments. Everyone knows how hard it is to win it. Getting into the top 10% multiple times is an impressive feat. These players have cashed the most times in the 45-year history of the WSOP Main Event. Humberto Brenes, with his cash in 2013, moved into second place all-time, with his 9th Main Event cash, one behind the leader, Berry Johnston.

FAMOUS WSOP MAIN EVENT FINAL HANDS

Ace-King

During the first 41 WSOP Main Events, never has the winning player held Ace-King as his starting hand and never has Ace-King been on the losing end of the final hand either. But, two of the past four WSOP Main Event champions have won their crown after holding Ace-King. 2013 champion Ryan Riess used Ace-King to beat Jay Farber's starting hand of Queen-Five, and 2011 champion Pius Heinz used the Ace-King starting hand to outduel Martin Staszko's 10-7 suited.

Pocket Nines

This has been the winning hand twice in the 45-year history of the WSOP Main Event as well. It also was the losing hand once.

In 1989, Phil Hellmuth became the then-youngest Main Event champion when he rode his two black pocket nines to victory over Johnny Chan and his Ace-Seven. Chan was the two-time defending Main Event champion, but Hellmuth made WSOP history at age 24 with this famous hand.

1989 Phil Hellmuth, Jr. 9♠ 9♣ $755,000 Johnny Chan A♠ 7♣

In 2009, Joe Cada dethroned Peter Eastgate to become the youngest-ever Main Event Champion at age 21. Cada earned $8.547 million for the victory and made the most remarkable comeback in final table history. After having just 2 million of the 195 million chips in play at one point, Cada took them all, completing his run to the record books with this historic hand.

2009 Joe Cada 9♦ 9♣ $8,547,044 Darvin Moon Q♦ J♦

Ten-Two

The cards made famous by "Texas Dolly" Doyle Brunson, who won his back-to-back WSOP Main Event Championships in 1976 and 1977 holding these identical hole cards on his final hand. In 1976, he bested Jesse Alto's Ace-Jack to capture his first WSOP Main Event bracelet, and the next year Gary "Bones" Berland's 8-5 fell victim to the 10-2 Brunson held in winning his second consecutive WSOP Main Event.

1976 Doyle Brunson 10♠ 2♠ $220,000 Jesse Alto A♠ J♦
1977 Doyle Brunson 10♠ 2♥ $340,000 Gary Berland 8♥ 5♣

Pair of Queens

In a dramatic conclusion to the 1978 WSOP Main Event, Bobby Baldwin captured the title when his pocket queens bested Crandall Addington's pocket nines. These future Poker Hall of Famers both flopped a set on the hand, but it was the Queens of Baldwin that maintained the lead to give him his first WSOP Main Event and his third WSOP bracelet.

1978 Bobby Baldwin Q♦ Q♣ 210,000 Crandall Addington 9♦ 9♣

Five-Four

After carrying out a bluff in the late stages of the 2003 WSOP Main Event, the aptly-named Chris Moneymaker completed his remarkable run on this memorable hand. With 5-4 off-suit, Moneymaker and runner-up Sam Farha saw a flop of J-5-4, with Farha holding J-10. Moneymaker was ahead with two pair against Farha's top pair after the flop, then all of the chips went in the middle. With a river 5, Moneymaker improved to a full house and won history's most memorable WSOP Main Event title.

2003 Chris Moneymaker 5♦ 4♠ $2,500,000 Sam Farha J♥ 10♦

Ace-Nine

Chris "Jesus" Ferguson won the 2000 WSOP Main Event when he bested T.J. Cloutier. Ferguson had a 10 to 1 chip advantage when heads-up play began, and after a see-saw battle, Ferguson called Cloutier's all-in. Cloutier had Ace-Queen. Ferguson looked in trouble holding Ace-Nine, but a miraculous nine on the river gave Ferguson a pair of nines, and the 2000 WSOP Main Event victory. But Ace-Nine was also the losing hand for 2014 runner-up Felix Stephensen, who called the all-in bet of Martin Jacobson holding suited A-9.

2014 Martin Jacobson 10♥10♦ $10,000,000 Felix Stephensen A♥9♥

Ace-Four

Stu Ungar won his third and final WSOP Main Event in 1997 after his Ace-Four beat John Strzemp's Ace-Eight, when a river deuce gave Ungar the wheel straight and the victory, but the remarkable thing about Ungar's feat was the fact he almost didn't get in the tournament to begin with. After spending 24 hours trying to raise enough money for the buy-in, Ungar was the last person who bought into the event, just before registration closed. He went on to complete the Main Event trifecta, winning his final Main Event title 16 years after he last accomplished the feat for a record-tying third World Championship title.

1997 Stu Ungar $ 4♣ $1,000,000 John Strzemp A♠ 8♣

Jack-Nine

This famous hand was immortalized in the movie Rounders, in which Johnny Chan had a cameo and Erik Seidel became infamous. Chan won his second of back-to-back WSOP Main Events in 1988, and he would have become the only player to do it three times in a row if it wasn't for a kid named Hellmuth. Chan's Jack-Nine of Clubs bested Seidel's Queen-Seven in the 1988 WSOP Main Event. The flop came Q-8-10, with Chan flopping a straight and Seidel grabbing top pair. Chan raised, Seidel re-raised and Chan called. After a harmless 2 on the turn, both players checked. With a 6 on the river, Seidel shoved all-in, and Chan quickly called after successfully trapped Seidel.

1988 Johnny Chan J♣ 9♣ $700,000 Erik Seidel Q♣ 7♥

Cracked Aces

The best starting hand – pocket Aces – has only been involved in two WSOP Main Event final hands in history. And both times, the Aces were cracked! In the 1979 Main Event, Hal Fowler's seven-six off-suit cracked the Pocket Aces of Bobby Hoff when he hit a gut shot straight. Fowler is considered the first amateur to ever win the WSOP Main Event.

1979 Hal Fowler 7♠ 6♦ $270,000 Bobby Hoff A♣ A♥

In 2001, Hall-of-Famer Dewey Tomko suffered the same fate in the final hand of the Main Event when Juan Carlos Mortensen's King-Queen of clubs bested Tomko's pocket rockets, rivering a King-high straight. For Tomko, it was the second time he had finished runner-up in the Main Event, joining T.J. Cloutier, Crandall Addington and Puggy Pearson as the only players to accomplish that feat.

2001 Juan Carlos Mortensen K♣ Q♣ $1,500,000 Dewey Tomko A♠ A♥

Pocket Kings

The second best starting hand in Texas Hold'em has never been achieved in the final hand in the 45-year history of the World Series of Poker Main Event. No player has either won or lost the Main Event holding pocket kings. In fact, only four times in WSOP Main Event history has a player holding even one king went on to win the Main Event! (1972, 1994, 2001 and in 2012. In 2012, Greg Merson's King-Five of diamonds bested Jesse Sylvia's Queen-Jack of spades).

Give Me a Nine, Any Nine

There have been 45 WSOP Main Events in history, and remarkably, the winner in 22.2% of them (10) has held a nine in his final hand – the second most common starting card of them all for WSOP Main Event winners. (A player was holding an ace in 24.4% of the winning hands (11), including Ryan Riess in the 2013 Main Event. Interesting to note though, both an Ace and a Nine were part of the losing hand in the 2014 WSOP Main Event won by Martin Jacobson. Felix Stephensen called Jacobson's all-in bet with Ace-Nine of Hearts, but was behind with Ace-Nine of Hearts. The flop came 10-9-3 improving both hands, but giving Jacobson a set of tens, and ironically the first $10 million first place prize in Main Event history.

AMATEURS WHO HAVE WON THE WSOP MAIN EVENT

The champion of the $10,000 No-Limit Hold'em World Championship Main Event has been won 15 times by an amateur (a poker player who, at the time of his or her win, had supported him-or-herself in a vocation other than poker) – and seven of the last dozen years.

Joe Cada, who won the 2009 WSOP Main Event, broke the streak of seven consecutive years of an amateur winning the WSOP Main Event, and the past six champions (Cada, Jonathan Duhamel, Pius Heinz, Greg Merson, Ryan Riess and Martin Jacobson), are all young professional players too, making it a streak of six in a row for the pros.

In 45 years of Main Event champions, a professional has won 30 times, or 66.66% of the time.

Here's a look at the amateurs who have won the Main Event and their occupations at the time of their historic victory:

YEAR	NAME	OCCUPATION
1979	Hal Fowler	Advertising Executive
1983	Tom McEvoy	Accountant
1989	Phil Hellmuth	Student
1990	Mansour Matloubi	Hotel Investor/Manager

HOW $10 MILLION STACKS UP

VERSUS OTHER PROFESSIONAL SPORTS SALARIES

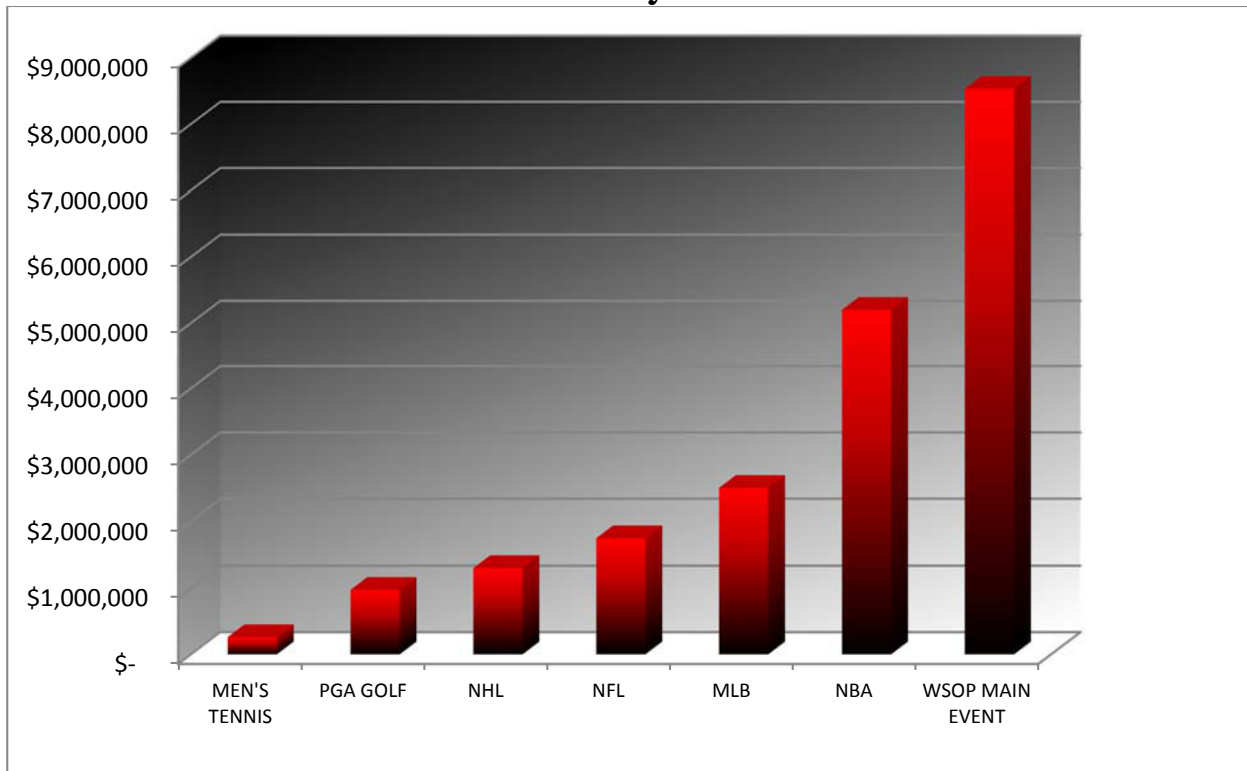

The winner of the 2014 World Series of Poker Main Event Martin Jacobson walked away with $10,000,000, plus the WSOP gold bracelet valued at $500,000.

Here is how the WSOP Main Event winner purse compares to other pro sports salaries:

NBA Basketball Average Salary:	$5.15 million
MLB Baseball Average Salary:	$3.2 million
NHL Hockey Average Salary:	$2.4 million
NFL Football Average Salary:	$1.9 million
MLS Soccer Average Salary:	$160,000
PGA Average Salary:	$628,079

Thus, the 2014 WSOP Main Event Champion took home about the same as the average NFL, NBA and MLB player does combined!

$50,000 POKER PLAYERS CHAMPIONSHIP – 10-GAME MIX

Sunday, June 21, 2015– 4 PM PT – Event #44

The $50,000 Poker Players Championship requires participants this year to play a rotation of ten popular forms of poker – Limit Hold'em, Omaha Hi-Low Split-8 or Better, Seven Card Razz, Seven Card Stud, Seven Card Stud Hi-Low Split 8 or Better, No Limit Hold'em, Pot Limit Omaha, 2-7 Triple Draw Lowball, 2-7 No Limit Draw Lowball and Badugi – to determine the game's greatest all-around player.

The game rotates every eight hands and all levels are 90 minutes. The tournament takes five days to complete. Players begin with 150,000 in tournament chips.

Poker greats consider the winner of the event the best all-around player because it demonstrates he or she can outplay the competition in a wide range of game variations with high stakes on the line.

The WSOP first added the $50,000 event to its schedule in 2006 in response to player requests to participate in a high entry fee game to determine the professional poker player's true champion.

The event was an instant highlight and is now a mainstay at the World Series of Poker. This year it begins on Sunday, June 21 at 4 p.m. and is Event #44 on the schedule.

A special commemorative Chip Reese Trophy is awarded. It is named in honor of the inaugural winner of this event, David "Chip" Reese, who passed away in late 2007. The iconic trophy was first added for the event's champion in 2008, with the winner keeping the top part of the trophy for the year, while his name is engraved on the bottom half, etched forever in history.

The $50,000 buy-in fee is the second-most expensive of the 68 events at the 2015 World Series of Poker.

The structure sheet for the event can be found here: <http://www.wsop.com/2015/structuresheets/14244-structure.pdf>

The history of this event at the World Series of Poker is as follows:

Year	Winner	Prize	# of Entrants	Total Prize Pool

WSOP LADIES EVENT

Friday, June 26th at 12 noon – Ladies No Limit Hold'em Championship

The World Series of Poker first offered a women's-only event in 1977. And every year since, the WSOP has been proud to offer an event for the ladies and with a prestigious gold bracelet on the line.

At the 46th annual WSOP this year, the ladies-only event is slated for Friday, June 26th at 12 noon. Since 2005, the event had been a $1,000 buy-in No Limit Hold'em tournament.

In 2013, the buy-in was changed to $10,000, marking the sixth different price change in this event's history. Ladies this year will continue to receive a 90% discount and pay $1,000 to enter this event.

This event originally started out as a Seven Card Stud tournament with a buy-in of $100.

While the game of choice offered was Seven Card Stud from 1977 through 1999, the buy-in had only been at $1,000 since 1992. From 1982 through 1991, the ladies event had a $500 buy-in. From 1979-1981 it was $400 and in 1978 the buy-in was $200.

In 2000, the game variation changed for the first time in the event's history, offering a ½ Limit Hold'em, ½ Seven Card Stud event. This event format continued through 2003.

In 2004, the Ladies Event was a Limit Hold'em tournament. In 2005, it switched to No Limit Hold'em, which has remained the same since.

Here's a look at the last dozen winners in the ladies event:

$1,000 LITTLE ONE FOR ONE DROP NO-LIMIT HOLD'EM

Sunday, June 30 – Event #61A @10am; #61B @4pm – Unlimited Re-Entry

The fourth biggest tournament (4,496 entries) of 2014 returns with some terrific enhancements for the 2015 version.

The event will now feature a $1,000 buy-in, with players getting an increased starting stack of 5,000 in chips, an increase of 25 percent.

But better yet, if players pay an additional $111 add-on, they will be able to double their starting stack to 10,000 in chips. We call this add-on feature the “Donating for Double” with all $111 going directly to support our charity partner, the ONE DROP organization (www.ONEDROP.org).

Players will be required to pay for their $111 add-on at the time of registration if they elect that option.

The event will feature two starting flights, Flight A at 10:00 AM on June 30 and Flight B at 4:00 PM the same day.

This is also an unlimited re-entry event during the open registration period. Players may re-enter the same flight or the alternate flight as often as they wish through the open registration period. Same rules apply as original entry. $1,000 buy-in for 5,000 in chips, with 10,000 chips being the starting stack if a player adds-on the $111 “Donating for Double” feature.

The World Series of Poker has a long and successful track record of using its platform each summer to help galvanize the generosity of the poker community to support worthwhile causes, using poker tournaments as the fun and friendly mechanism.

The Little One for ONE DROP marks the third year of a very successful event that debuted in 2013.

The four-day event will likely run through July 3 and is expected to again award the largest prize pool of the summer of any $1,000 buy-in event.

Players who cash will still have the opportunity after the event, to make a charitable donation to ONE DROP if they so choose.

The structure sheet for the event can be viewed here:

POKER HALL OF FAME VOTING GUIDELINES

As in the previous four years, the nomination, selection and voting process will culminate in the enshrinement of a worthy inductee(s) as part of the WSOP Main Event Final Table.

The process will work as follows:

- The public will be able to submit a name(s) for consideration via online submissions at www.WSOP.com during the final 30 days of the WSOP.
- On or after August 15, the entire list of submitted individuals will be forwarded to the Nominating Committee, who will be tasked with reviewing all submissions and determining the final list of eligible candidates for 2015 induction. The committee will determine if any others should be added (such as non-poker players who have contributed greatly to the game, any glaring omissions, etc.) and determine the final eligible list.
- The Nominating Committee's final list will be announced in September. Anyone on this list will be forwarded to the official voters, made up of current Poker Hall of Fame members and select media, who will cast ballots to determine the induction class in 2015.
- A finalist ballot will be sent to the current Hall-of-Famers (23 living), who will each rank the nominees in order of preference – ranking only those they deem worthy of admission in 2015. Each Hall-of-Famer will also have the ability to add a write-in candidate, who won't be eligible for admission in 2015, but will automatically be added to the consideration list for 2016. In addition, a select group of media members will also be sent a ballot for ranking the finalists. All votes will be cast in private, with each PHOF and media member entitled but not obligated to keep their vote secret. After receiving back all ballots, the PHOF governing council reviews the selections and helps finalize any tiebreakers or errors.
- The two finalists receiving the most votes, as long as they are a majority, will be inducted during the enshrinement ceremony at the Final Table of Main Event in November, 2015.
